

Student Quiz

Which is the most likely age to develop Testicular cancer?

- A. 10-14 B. 15-45 C. 50-60

Is testicular cancer becoming more or less common?

- A. more B. less

What is the most common symptom of TC?

- A. headache B. a hard lump in the balls C. an ache in the balls

Are you at more risk of developing testicular cancer if;

- A. your brother has had it B. your father has had it C. neither

How often should you check your balls

- A. once a day B. Once a year C. Every 6-months D. once a month

When is the best time to check you balls?

- A. after a warm/hot bath B. after an ice cold shower

What percentage of men will survive early TC

- A. 10% B. 50% C. 75% D. 98%

What hormone is made by the testicles?

- A. testosterone B. oestrogen C. glucose

What is the most common cause of TC

- A. kick in the balls B. an undescended testicle

How many men in the UK are diagnosed with TC every year

- A. 10000 B. 5200 C. 2200

What is an operation to remove the testicle called

- A. nutoptomy B. ballplasty C. orchidectomy

Only answer if supplementary slides viewed.

Orchid Male Cancer Helpline

T. 0808 802 0010

E. nurse@orchid-cancer.org.uk